fair and mild weather. That is a Dollar Day is not an event of profit-taking. The offerings of local merchants frequently are below cost prices and the day's sales, tion. footed up at the close of business, never shows a profit, Merchants do not go into Dollar Day activities with the idea of making money. They want to show the public that this town is what everybody claims it is-a live one-and they are looking for anybody from M'ssouri.

It is important to remember the open ng-9 a. m. Thursday morning pany and be prepared to pay cash. After reading the advertisements in the Record, it would be a good plan to make a list of the things you want' and then go for them. It would. be well also to bring a good roll along, because more goods will be displayed than were advertised, and Park any man or woman would feel bad to be caught short.

The following stores and business houses have entered into the spirit of
